I am in total agreement with National Conference of Volunteer Examiner Coordinators (RM-10870). The existing entry point for Amaetur Radio is harder than it needs to be. By lowering the pep and having a simpler entry point, more people will join. They also will be able to upgrade later. The requirement of Morse Code has outlived it's usefullness. Those that want to learn it can on their own.